and the jury found a verdict for them.

pair. The prefect has forbidden the gathering of those little heaps of filth in the gutter which early risers may see, and from which the chiffonnier picks his daily bread. Henceforth the householder must empty his dust into the cart as it passes every morning. The rag, ckers say this means starva tion to them and as there are several thouserd in Paris they contemplate a rising. A chiffonnier earns from two to three frances as are a form to the cart as a figure of the provinces and thouserd in Paris they contemplate a rising. A chiffonnier earns from two to three frances day. pair. The prefect has forbidden the strikes her husband; but the man is not liable for assaulting the woman if he uses a switch no larger than his little inger in doing so. It is now proposed to so amend the statutes as to give the wife the same immanity that her husband enjoys.

A sustness firm in Toronto, Canada, which sent a postal card to a broker who was in littlegation, stating that the broker's opponent had attempted to extert money from them by blackmail and was a low fellow, was sued for $15,000$ damages for libel but pleaded that the communication was privileged, and the jury found a verdict for them.

Things ran along somehow of them solves down by the flats, and the sopranos raised themselves down by the flats, and the meselves down by the flats, and the sopranos raised themselves down be sopranos raised themselves down by the flats, and the sopranos raised themselves down be steadying tones from the sopranos raised themselves down themselves down be steadying tones from the sopranos raised themselves down themselves down themse that the communication was privileged, bother well-ordered choirs in the neighborhood.

The jury found a verdict for them.

The ragpickers of Paris are in descapit. The prefect has forbidden the in, of which, backed by the good old bis vexation and any offense which his

"I'm a professional juryman, I am. "I'm a professional juryman, a control of a panel of 200 last week I was the only one who didn't know anything about the murder case that happened about the murder case that happened about the murder case that happened next door to me. I got $2 a day, I did. I've caugat on to the racket, and I don't allow anybody to read me anything about murders, abductions or torgeries. It took me quite a while to learn how to be a juryman, but I'm a dy one now, you bot. I'm an expert know-nothing, I am. Don't try and pump any information into me."

| Column | C

"Yes, I know, but you don't want to take the bread right out of my mouth, do you, and out of my children's mouths? You don't want to interfere with my business and break me all up, do you?" "How is this going to interfere with oblige about railroad management our business?" hands when opportunity offers, and the same high principle conduces to the retention of old employes just as long tive of the Central railway, stands to day in a two-fold position before the community. First, he has said that the road was never doing so well as it is now, and second, he has discharged, without apparent necessity, one thousand of the best men in his employ.

The continued:

The bar-tender continued:

The continue and of the best men in his employ. "It is mostly called for in the morn-those thousand men are scattered along ing by those who have been off on an the line from New York to Lake Eds. all night spree. It is a sort of a sattle."

In a vast majority of instances there know-nothing, I am. Don't try and pump any information into me."

A Good Friend to the Chinese.

SAN Enancisco.—Consul A. F. Bec, of the Chinese Consulate Office, expresses himself clearly in saying that he, as well as his family have suffered severely from rheumatism and neuralgis, and that medicines were used in vain. At last St. Jacobs Oil was tried, which effected immediate cures in every case. The Consul regards the Oil as the greatest pain curing remedy in existence.

Waternnong, S. C.—Dr. J. M. Kie'u says: "Brown's from pitters have given universal satisfaction."

when the pump any information into me."

A Good Friend to the bost men in his employ. The better many of the bost men in his employ. The sethous and of the bost men in his employ. The better and of the morning by those who have been off on an all light spree. It is snostly called for in the morning by those who have been off on an all light spree. It is not to have the have been off on an all light spree. It is not to have the have been off on an all light spree. It is not to have the have been off on an all light spree. It is not to have the have frequent calls for it through the day. We dispose of about 200 'beef tosa' a day, so you see it's no small thing. Why nothing but what sick people drink when they are not able to take any other nourishment—the extract of beef dilated with hot water and properly seasoned. Occasionally there is a dash of brandy in existence.

Waternnong, S. C.—Dr. J. M. Kie'u says: "Brown's from pitters have given universal satisfaction."

White in the line from New York to Lake Eric.
In a vast majority of instances been off on an all light spree. It is not the sitter, to tone up the stomench; but we have frequent calls for it through the day. The whole the day is the weet-covered church, where a farewell service was held, dating the says of queek his head doan' hat time to shwim!"

"The Cuncinnati Price Current says the water and properly seasoned. Occasionally there is a dash of brandy in this shoughtest, and in the c beef to become a popular drink?" I was sober, and a fourth man spike ment is asked to make a grant of 30,Quite recently, was the reply. "It's the money down to the table, so that it one couldn't blow away!"

mechanics from the farm offices. The a craze, you see, very new in Phila-delphia and a novelty in New York. 1

Beef tea being a beverage familiar to his certificate written on parcament, the sick room, but heretofore not recognized among the saloons, the reporter before I could credit the fact of a dividence of the man behind the bar, "When did beef tea become a popular drink?" I was sober, and a fourth man spike that I was sober, and a fourth man spike ment is asked to make a grant of 30,- cooction over.

cocked revolver to his head, and have trilled the family by producing Beef tea being a beverage familiar to his certificate written on parchment, seriousness an old-fashioned w mechanics from the farm offices. The conservatists look upon this as an aderament may cultivate a willow plants-tion on the site. The village was very